WE CALL YOUR ATTENTION

In our 25 years experience in the Grass & Field Seed business we have never had the shortages that exist this year. The extreme drought throughout the south during the summer and early fall reduced yields and harvests (and many cases practically failures) to the degree that our supply on many varieties is very - very short and limited.

We don't suggest that anyone "stockup" but we do suggest that you anticipate reasonably on your requirements and do not wait until the last minute to buy some of your stock.

We are not making this warning to encourage heavy buying, but look ahead, buy conservatively. Many varieties will be gone before the season is over. We invite your inquiries.
